

FEW IMPORTANT GAMES SATURDAY'S PROGRAM

Dixie Elevens to Meet Light Teams Saturday

All Squads Are Going Up Against Opponents Which Should Prove Easy—Only One Memphis Contest, C. B. C. Being Slated to Tackle West Tennessee Normal

BY BOB FIGUE.

The premier elevens of Dixie are going to have it soft Saturday. The schedules of the various headline teams call for games with opponents which should prove easy.

On Saturday next many hard battles are carded, and this Saturday's games were put in for the purpose of giving the squads a rest period before meeting their heavier opponents.

There is only one Memphis game scheduled. Christian Brothers' College will meet the West Tennessee Normal outfit at Hodges field at 3 o'clock.

The Vanderbilt Commodores are going up against the Kentucky State Wildcats at Lexington. The Wildcats have been tamed on many occasions by Vandy and there is every indication that the Commodores will give the Wildcat's tail a terrific twist when they meet Saturday. Although Kentucky is far from a dub machine, it is hardly in Vandy's class, and each Dan McGugin's eleven may be counted on to come away with the victory, barring an earthquake or some other unanticipated upset.

VOLS VS. N. CAROLINA.

The Volunteers are carded to meet a good husky outfit in the North Carolina team. This game should be the hardest of any on Dixie's schedule. It will be homecoming day at Knoxville, with all Tennessee alumni being present to witness the contest. The Vols will make a desperate effort to cop his contest and Coach Bender says his charges are not going to be satisfied with less than a 30-point margin. The North Carolinians are invading Knoxville loaded for bear and plenty of fur will fly when these two good teams mingle.

TECH VS. DAVIDSON.

Georgia Tech, Dixie's Golden Tornado and the leading eleven of Sunland, has a game scheduled with Davidson. The contest will be pulled off at Ponce de Leon park, Atlanta, and should prove little more than a stiff workout for the Heisman, who have already shown the class that makes them the last word in Dixie football. On last Saturday Tech journeyed to Pittsburgh and was vanquished by Glenn Warner's Panthers, and it will do the team no harm to have a game with a lighter foe for this Saturday. The regular Tech lineup will start the game, but if the expected walkover materializes, Coach Heisman will send in many of his substitutes who have been embellishing the sidelines all season.

SEAWANE VS. ALABAMA.

The Seawane Tigers, who have been getting licked with considerable regularity so far this season, are hoping to wrench a victory from Alabama Saturday afternoon, and thereby emerge from the slump which has characterized

NORMAL FAVORITE OVER C. B. C. TEAM

Hays Minus Two Men, But Barnett Is Back—Campbell Expects to Cop With Help of Berry and Wilson.

BY COYLE SHEA.

Normal lives a slight favorite over C. B. C. in their annual football game scheduled for Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Hodges field. At the same time a rumor has run afield that C. B. C. may spring one of the real surprises of the season when it makes its second start of the year.

After a hard week's grind the college will start the game without the services of two of its most dependable men in Ament and Walsh. The former has been laid out by sickness and the latter has been eliminated by parental objection. This compelled Coach Frank Hays to shift his forces somewhat, so that Ellis went to center and Cates took a shot at full. The Purple and Gold was strengthened slightly by the return of Barnett, who has been out since the Tupelo game, but even the re-entry of this bustling lad could not offset the damage inflicted by the sudden departure of Ament and Walsh.

Coach Hays has driven the ever-living liver out of his candidates in preparation for the test Saturday but is in no jubilant mood over his prospects. He knows that Normal is well prepared and that if C. B. C. isn't and what is more that he will be quite content to escape with anything less than a severe drubbing.

On the other hand there is an atmosphere of confidence around the Normal campus, where Billy Campbell has taken charge in his usual hurry-up style. The former gob has been on the job but two weeks, but in that time has worked wonders with the material at hand. Besides perfecting a fine defense he has added both speed and punch for his attack. He is ready to lay a dime or so that C. B. C. will not be able to score.

In Wilson and Berry are two of the cleverest lads in the city—almost certain prospects for the All-Memphis machine. Wilson, at quarter, combines natural ability with clear brain and has clearly demonstrated his place among the local players. The same is true of Berry who is another Leonidas at Thermopylae guarding the pass. Any gains made around his end are well earned for this lad has an unusual ability of squirming into the thick of the fight and bagging his man with remarkable regularity.

The tax will be half a buck and the following have been named as officials: Referee, Curlin; umpire, Hippler; head line-man, Tapp.

DE HART'S PLAYING PITT'S BAROMETER

CAPTAIN DE HART.

The most notable feature of the terrific beating Syracuse handed the famous Pittsburgh eleven recently was the off-color playing of Captain De Hart of the Pitt crew. De Hart is positive that, with De Hart playing in form, the result would have been different. "When the ball starts in right, we win," say they. The fans haven't lost hope, however, and predict that De Hart and the rest of the Pitt team will be heard from before the season's over.

RED DOLAN'S DUE TO ARRIVE FRIDAY TO MEET HERRING

New Orleans Lightweight to Conclude His Training at S. A. C.—Herring All Ready for Monday Night Bout.

BY BOB FIGUE.

Red Dolan, New Orleans lightweight, who has a date to travel eight rounds with Red Herring, of Memphis, at the Southern Athletic club Monday night, is due to arrive in Memphis Friday afternoon. Dolan is coming direct from the Crescent city, where he has been in training for the past several days in anticipation of his battle with Herring, which is certain to be one of the toughest bouts the New Orleans has ever engaged in.

Dolan is no novice at the mitt game, having been boxing for the past seven or eight years and having met practically every good man in the lightweight division. He has made such a good showing that he is expected to get a crack at Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, and if the present king of the lighties can see his way clear to meet Dolan, Red will make an effort to remove the championship helmet from Benny's attic.

Dolan will conclude his training in Memphis at the Southern Athletic club arena, and will work out Saturday and Sunday afternoons. All fight fans are invited to journey down to the Main and Winchester battleground and watch both Herring and Dolan work. Both boys will box with the best available sparring partners, and each boxer will travel five or six rounds, as their managers see fit. The two millers have agreed to make 135 pounds ring-side, and there is every indication that both of them will have to put in two good days' work if they are to come in at that figure Monday night, for both are good and husky.

Red Herring, Memphis' entry, is entering the mill with confidence that he will be able to get the decision. Red has never fought in Memphis before, and is determined to prove to the localistic colony that he has the goods that go to make up a top-notch lightweight. He is not underrating Dolan, who has the reputation of being one of the best among Dixie lighties, but Herring believes he will be able to get the decision over Red by showing more attack.

The show promises to be one of the best of the season, as both Herring and Dolan can step fast and should be at their best Monday night. Dolan is anxious to appear in the Memphis arena again soon, and realizes that he must win this fight if he can hope to get the good will of Memphis fight fans. At the same time Red Herring has made his home in Memphis and to be able to get bouts he has to show considerable fight class, so he'll fight his bean off in an effort to get the referee's decision at the end of the eight rounds.

Good preliminaries are being arranged. Promoter Billy Haack is lining up a six-round bout and two four-rounders, along with a battle royal, which will start things off.

HOME-COMING DAY FOR VOLUNTEERS

All Tennessee Alumni Expect To Be Present at Saturday Game.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 31. (Sp.)—"Some game of the football season should be a homecoming day for the alumni. In 1914 this day was Nov. 8, the day of the Vanderbilt game. Many old students were present and adding their part toward the victory. This year the date which has been named as homecoming day is Nov. 1, the day of the North Carolina game.

The homecoming this year is planned as an athletic event rather than a visit to the university, because of the great changes that are taking place on the university campus, and because of the inconvenience of staying meetings on the grounds. The grading on the top of the hill is practically complete, but the roads and grounds show the evidences of much hard usage. The athletic field, however, in the same old Wain field and we are expecting a great game with North Carolina.

North Carolina has played Rutgers, Yale and Wake Forest, and has yet on her schedule North Carolina, Aggies, Tennessee, Davidson and Virginia. These schools are no mean opponents, and Carolina is making history for herself this year. She defeated the sons of Ed Hays up behind their goal line and see a Southern team kick goal after a touchdown. Yale won, but Carolina scored.

Tennessee has played Tusculum, Maryville, Vanderbilt, Mississippi A. & M. and Clemson. We have yet on our schedule North Carolina, South Carolina, Cincinnati and Kentucky. Unless some bad luck overtakes us we should come to this game with the best form yet shown this season. The first and second dates in November, aside from Thanksgiving, are the best dates of the schedule. Before this time the team is new and lacks skill that it can only get by actual games. A high point is usually reached early in November. Then comes a slump and a new high point at the end of the season.

North Carolina was here in 1908. Despite the early season date, which was early in October, the attendance at the game was one of the greatest in the history of university athletics. The date

Chicks Needed Lightning; Look At Ray Caldwell

Who says lightning plays no part in baseball. A few weeks ago it lit upon Ray Caldwell, a pitching person, while he was performing on the mound, and flattened him upon the landscape. The undertakers rushed forward with embalming fluid, but even before they could get their injectors in working order, Mr. Caldwell rose up and resumed his pitching.

Before being struck by the heavenly juice, Mr. Caldwell had been a 470 pitcher, discarded by the Yankees and fired by the Red Sox. Also he had a famous throat.

After the bolt descended upon him from the skies, Mr. Caldwell did this:

Went six out of seven games for the Indians; shutout the Yankees without a hit; ceased tickling his palate with any liquid stronger than iced tea.

Can you wonder why a lot of managers just now gaze at a few of their twirlers, think of Caldwell—and then begin paying a bolt of lightning?

This year will be a gala day on the local schedule. The teams are well matched and the bond between Tennesseans and Carolinians has grown closer since 1908. Many men from these two schools fought side by side with the Thirtieth division, thus laying a basis of common interest forever.

Some of the fraternities are planning special meetings and dances for the day. All who come will surely have a big time.

Benny Leonard Will Meet Duffy In Title Bout

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Agreeing to risk his world's lightweight boxing title at 140 pounds, Benny Leonard will meet Jimmy Duffy of Lockport, N. Y., in a 15-round contest with a referee's decision at Tulsa, Okla., Nov. 15. The title, which has changed hands at various weights from 135 pounds up, has never been fought for at this high weight.

Dempsey Gets Big Offer For London Fight

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Jack Dempsey's next opponent very likely will be Joe Beckett, ex-heavyweight champion, and the fight will be held in London. Jack Kearnes, Dempsey's manager, following his failure to close a match with New Jersey promoters yesterday, said today that he had been offered $300,000 for Dempsey's services in London for a bout with Beckett and that he believed he would accept it.

Before going to London the champion will go to Los Angeles to see a feature motion picture which will be produced by Kearnes.

MITCHELL AGAIN TO LEAD THE CUBS

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—At a meeting of the directors of the Chicago club of the National league, here today, Fred Mitchell was re-elected manager of the Cubs, and a vote of thanks given.

This disposes of the rumor, which had gained some circulation, that Mitchell would not lead the Cubs next year.

According to report from Hod Eller, home town of Danville, Ill., he will return to his job as a member of the fire department in that town, but will accept a position as salesman for an automobile concern in the neighboring town of Champaign.
